- Pat Williams, A Lifetime of Success

A SWEET LESSON IN HUMANITY

Years ago, a 10-year-old boy approached the counter of a soda shop and climbed on to a stool. "What does an ice cream sundae cost?" he asked the waitress.

"Fifty-cents," she answered.

The youngster reached deep in his pockets and pulled out an assortment of change, counting it carefully as the waitress grew impatient. She had "bigger" customers to wait on.

"Well, how much would just plain ice cream be?" the boy asked.

The waitress responded with noticeable irritation in her voice, "Thirty-five cents."

Again, the boy slowly counted his money. "May I have some plain ice cream in a dish then, please?" He gave the waitress the correct amount, and she brought him the ice cream.

Later, the waitress returned to clear the boy's dish and when she picked it up, she felt a lump in her throat. There on the counter the boy had left two nickels and five pennies. She realized that he had had enough money for the sundae, but sacrificed it so that he could leave her a tip.

FIRST FRUITS FARM
Freeland, Maryland

Volunteers needed to help with the harvest on Saturday, June 25, 2011

Carpooling is encouraged. We can meet at the Church and plan on leaving by 7:00 am. We get to the farm at 9:00 am and work until noon. Bring a lunch. We can have a picnic lunch, rest and relax before heading back.

Right now, it sounds as if we will be harvesting Kale and Collards – yum!
(The harvest is transported to soup kitchens, food banks and shelters around the Maryland community)

Dress for the weather & expect to get dirty.
NO sandals or flip-flops!

The farm provides gloves and drinking water. Each participant must bring a signed liability waiver, which is on their website:

www.firstfruitsfarm.org

Workers from 5 – 85 years old are welcome!

There is a sign-up sheet in the narthex.
